secXtreme is a company who consults and supports medium and large sized enterprises in the field of IT security. In addition secXtreme develops security appliances running on Linux (honeyBox, customized solutions).

For our office in Ottobrunn near by Munich/Germany we are looking for a

Working student (m/f) software development

Your tasks:

• Software development on our security appliances
• Testing of further usage szenarios of the security appliances

Technical requirements:

• Student of computer science, electrical engineering or related fields of study
• Programming experience at least in two of the four areas: C, bash, PHP, Python
• Well founded Linux knowledge (Debian)
• Computer network knowledge (TCP/IP, routing, switching)

Personal requirements:

• Discrete thinking and working
• Creativity
• Capacity for teamwork
• Readiness of mind
• Faultless criminal record (expense will be refunded)

Working hours: 15-20 hours per week, time management and number of hours as agreed (during semester break gladly more)

Work duration: Not less than 3 months, longer term preferred

Beginning: January 2013

Salary: As agreed depending on qualification and job performance

We offer interesting taks and challenges in a an employee oriented working environment in the exciting field of IT security.

Please send your application online to bewerbung@sec-xtreme.com specifying index 201301-1.

Job site: Our office in Ottobrunn near by Munich/Germany.

Contact person:

Christian Scheucher
Phone: +49 (0)89-18 90 80 68-11
E-Mail: christian.scheucher@sec-xtreme.com

secXtreme GmbH
Kiefernstrasse 38
85649 Brunnthal-Hofolding
Germany
www.sec-xtreme.com